

11 Find link on digital profile page to prove status to someone

The screenshot shows a digital profile page with a 'Prove your status' button highlighted in red. The page includes sections for 'Status', 'Details', and 'Update your details'.

10 Correctly enter code from email or text message into website

The screenshot shows the 'Check your phone' page. It states: 'We've sent you a single-use, 6-digit security code by (SMS) to: +4474. It may take a few minutes to arrive.' Below this is a 'Security code' input field highlighted in red, with 'Resend code' and 'Continue' buttons.

9 Switch to email app or text message and wait for code (expires after 5 minutes)

The screenshot shows the GOV.UK security code page. It says: 'You requested a security code.' Below that, 'Your security code is: 848740'. A note states: 'Your code expires in 5 minutes. It can only be used once.' At the bottom, there is a link: 'Sign in to your UK Visas and Immigration account'.

12 Provide reason for proving your status

The screenshot shows the 'Why are you proving your status?' page. Under 'I want to:', the 'work in the UK' option is selected with a radio button. Other options include 'get hospital treatment', 'claim benefits or tax credits', 'get homelessness assistance or council housing', 'open a bank or building society account', 'get a loan or credit card', and 'another reason'. A 'Continue' button is at the bottom.

13 See preview of your right to work (but which is not proof of right to work)

The screenshot shows the 'Your right to work' preview page. It includes a 'Right to work' section with a 'YOUR NAME WILL APPEAR HERE' placeholder and a 'Details' section. A note says: 'Do not give this page to your employer - it is not proof of your right to work. To share your details with an employer, you need to create a share code.' A 'Continue' button is highlighted in red.

14 Give the following to employer:

- Share code (expire after 30 days)
- Date of birth
- Correct website

The screenshot shows the 'Details to give your employer' page. It lists 'Share code' as '2FF 9YAW R112' (highlighted in red). Below it, it says: 'This code lasts for 30 days - it will expire on 11 January 2020.' Under 'What to do next', there are three numbered steps: 1. Give the share code and your date of birth to the person you want to prove your right to work to. 2. To see your right to work, they must enter the share code and your date of birth at www.gov.uk/view-right-to-work. 3. Contact them to make sure they have all the information they need. A 'Print this page' link and a 'Send code by email' button are also visible.

! Similar for landlords or general sharing

The screenshot shows the 'Details you need to share' page for landlords or general sharing. It lists 'Share code' as 'SPM T4X 2XN' (highlighted). Below it, it says: 'This code lasts for 30 days - it will expire on 5 February 2021.' Under 'What to do next', there are three numbered steps: 1. Give the share code and your date of birth to the person you want to prove your right to rent to. 2. To see your right to rent, they must enter the share code and your date of birth at www.right-to-rent. 3. Contact them to make sure they have all the information they need.